HAVE YOU HEARD FROM YOUR INSURANCE BROKER?

By Larry Vukovic, Shore Benefits Inc.

Most small groups just auto-renew. We will do a review and show two-three better fits for your budget and team.

Stop the rollover. If your plan renewed as-is, you're likely overpaying or missing value. We can send a simple side-by-side comparison and talk it through in 15 minutes.

Benefits with a purpose. If no one asked about hiring plans, HSA vs copay, or telehealth, your plan is on autopilot. We will tailor 2-3 options for you.

THE HILL SCHOOL AND HOBART'S RUN APPOINT ALYSSA SLADE AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Alyssa Slade

The Hill School and Hobart's Run recently announced the appointment of Alyssa M. Slade as the new Executive Director of Community Engagement and Economic Development. Ms. Slade brings over a decade of strategic leadership experience in higher education, community engagement, and experiential learning. She assumed this new role September 15.

Most recently, in her role as Senior Director for the Holleran Center for Community & Global Engagement at Alvernia University, Ms. Slade oversaw eight major university programs and centers, including the Holleran Center, Reading Youth Initiative, and the Veterans Center. Her leadership in managing over $1 million in grant funding and cultivating impactful university-community partnerships has significantly advanced student development and institutional priorities. Her background also includes managing federal grant programs, coordinating student employment, and directing community outreach efforts.

"I am deeply honored to join The Hill School and Hobart's Run community as the Executive Director of Community Engagement and Economic Development," shares Ms. Slade. "I look forward to leveraging my experience in community leadership and strategic partnerships to strengthen connections between Hill and the wider Pottstown community."

Ms. Slade holds a M.A. in Community Leadership and a B.A. in Psychology, both from Alvernia University from which she graduated magna cum laude. She lives in Sinking Spring, Pa. with her family.

"Alyssa is incredibly well-suited to take on leadership of Hobart's Run and build on the exciting momentum that has already been generated," says Kathleen Devaney, Head of The Hill School.

Ms. Slade will lead the team that manages the Hobart's Run initiative, which includes Cathy Skitko, Director of Hobart's Run Communications and Community Partnerships and Director of Community Service, and Jacque Steinman, Administrative Coordinator.
